DANIEL 7:2-4

²Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. ³And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other. ⁴The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

DANIEL 7:5

And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

Three Ribs represent three major previous empires that influenced Israel:

- (1) Egypt
- (2) Assyria
- (3) Babylon

DANIEL 7:6

After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

A few years after Alexander died his kingdom was divided into four parts:

- (1) Antigonos (Macedonia and Greece)
- (2) Lysimachus (Western Asia Minor)
- (3) Seleucus Dynasty (Mesopotamia)
- (4) Ptolemy Dynasty (Egypt)

DANIEL 7:7-8

⁷After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. ⁸I was considering the horns, and there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words.
